TLCS news & views

The Learning Centre School's newsletter will now be published on Wednesdays. We hope this will help us have better communication with our students and parents throughout the term.

Mock Examinations for Form 5 and End of Term Examinations for Form 4 start on Wed, 22nd July.

End of term Examinations for Form 3 start on 27th July

We welcome to our staff Mr. Jabulani Sibanda who will be teaching History/ Geography and Agriculture in our Upper Primary and Junior Secondary classrooms.

He will be known on campus as Mr. JB.

Friday, July 10 will be a civics day. Students should dress appropriately according to uniform guidelines.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT REGARDING SCHOOL FEES for 2010....

There will be NO fee increase for the 2010 school year.

Please also take advantage of our Friends and Family Discount

Registration for 2010 has already opened. Secure your child's place now.

*It is important that you register for next year so that we will hold space for your student ****

LABELS....

This week, your child should receive an invitation to purchase labels for uniform wear. If you would like to purchase, please return the order form to your child's class teacher. Please include the Class name on the order form they have provided.

Uniform...

Please make sure children are wearing correct uniform - not last years sweaters.

Thank you
